

Academic Success

If your child is struggling in a class, you and your child are encouraged to take advantage of one or more of these opportunities for success:

- Teacher Conferences: Students are strongly encouraged to work with their teachers to improve their grades. Formal student/parent/guardian conferences can be scheduled by calling 821-1754.
- Parent/Student Portal: Internet access to: grades, progress reports, class assignments and attendance. Log-in on the home page of the Arcadia High School website (ahs.ausd.net). If you need your parent access ID and password please see Rachel Andrade at the front desk or call 821-1754.
- Friday Cards: Weekly Friday Progress Report is available in the Dean's Office.
- Free Peer Tutoring: Beginning in October. Monday-Friday in the AHS Library from 3:00-4:00 pm. Supervised by AHS Staff.
- Private Student Tutoring: (fee based) Beginning in October students and parents can check at the Counselor of the Day (COD) Desk for a current list of AHS students who provide private tutoring. (Please note: not all subjects are available).
- National Honor Society Tutoring drop-in: Free drop-in every Wednesday during lunch in the Library Media Center.
- National Honor Society Tutoring one-on-one: Provided by National Honor Society; student must be referred by a teacher. Check with teacher in specific subject.
- Email – Faculty/Staff emails can be found at ahs.ausd.net.
- Rancho High School: Students may complete their high school diploma by transferring to Rancho High School. Contact your child's counselor for more information.

The AHS Student Support Personnel Team encourages parents/guardians and students to take advantage of these services available to help make the high school experience a successful one.
